

Ian Mathers was raised on a dairy farm with the prefix Ballybeeney Holsteins and currently resides in Consecon, Ontario. Ian has always had a passion for elite animals that could show and has fitted animals for breeders throughout Canada, Italy and Britain. After receiving his certificate at Dairyland Hoofcare Institute, Ian started his own business, BBH Hoofcare. Additionally, Ian was a Holstein Canada Classifier for two and a half years. Ian is excited to pursue his judging career while he continues to judge 4-H shows throughout Ontario.
