

Doug Karn along with his wife Helen and two children, Derek and Dani reside in Woodstock, Ontario where they own and operate Karnvilla Holsteins and Jerseys. This Master Breeder herd currently milks 90 deep pedigreed Holsteins and Jerseys. Karnvilla has been honoured with many achievements over the years, including 17 All-Canadian nominations, 6 All-American nominations and 41 All-Ontario nominations. Additionally, the Karnvilla Breeders' Herd has been nominated All-Canadian 6 times. A highlight for Doug is being involved with Karnvilla Skychief Roxe, a cow that has a family with 7 consecutive Excellent generations. Roxe was also nominated for Canadian Cow of the Year in 2007 and Global Cow of the Year in 2008.

Doug is extremely involved within his community as a hockey coach, girls fastball coach and a past 4-H leader. Additionally included in Doug's list of achievements is holding the title of a member on the Ontario Judging Committee, the Past President of the Oxford Holstein Club and the Past President of Holstein Ontario. Doug has officiated at many judging assignments, which include 4-H Shows, Championship Shows and Breeders' Cups across Ontario. Doug has also had the privilege to judge the Brandon Agricultural Exhibition and has officiated at International Shows in Peru and Ecuador. Additionally, Doug has judged in the Dominican Republic.
