

Lorne and his wife, Theresa currently reside in Renfrew, Ontario. Lorne owns registered cattle under the Bonnechere Holsteins prefix and has received many All Canadian and All Ontario awards. Recently, Lorne has been a proud partner in the ownership of Trent Valley Gold Chip Abra 6, the 2015 Champion Calf at the TD Canadian Dairy Classic Show. Lorne has had the privilege to judge many County Shows and the honour to judge prestigious 4-H shows in Ontario and Quebec. Lorne is also an Official Jersey Canada Judge.

Lorne grew up at Roybrook Farm, Brooklin Ontario and spent 12 years as Herdsman working with Master Breeder, Roy Ormiston at Roybrook until the sale of the herd in 1990. Lorne continued working in the Agricultural industry after the sale as an AI Technician, Sales Representative and worked his way up to a Regional Manager. Lorne also owns Artist Pride Inc.; an advertising and graphic design company. Lorne was privileged to have been a member of the Holstein Canada's Cow of the Year nomination committee for many years. Lorne has also been an official judge on several All Ontario Holstein Committees. Lorne is participating in Holstein Ontario's Judging Mentorship program as a Mentor.

Shows Judged: Lennox & Addington County Show, Thunder Bay County Show, Lanark County Show, Northumberland County Show, Peterborough County Show, Durham County Show, Prescott County Show, Pontiac County Show, Hastings County Show, East Central 4-H Championship Show, Maxville Showmanship Show, Ontario Summer Show Showmanship, Western Quebec 4-H Show, Quebec Provincial 4-H Show