

Doug along with his wife, Carol and children, Bryn and Lochlan reside in Merrickville, Ontario. Doug is the North American Editor for the magazine Holstein International. Throughout his judging career, Doug has had the opportunity to judge internationally in North America, Sweden and South Africa, including judging the Red and White Holsteins and the Shorthorn Show at World Dairy Expo. Doug was also one of the official judges of the Hoards Dairyman Competition in 2015 for the Shorthorn breed. When Doug is not judging dairy, you can also find him judging sheep. In his spare time, Doug enjoys music and singing.
