

2019 Future Leaders Scholarship Winners Announced

CONGRATULATIONS TO NATALIE TEMPLETON AND NOLAN ALLARDYCE, THE WINNERS OF THIS YEAR'S $1,000 SCHOLARSHIPS. THESE AWARDS, SPONSORED BY ONTARIO JOINT DAIRY BREEDS, ARE GIVEN TO YOUNG PEOPLE IN THE AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY FOR THEIR INVOLVEMENT, ACCOMPLISHMENTS, AND LEADERSHIP ACHIEVEMENTS.

NATALIE lives in Kemptville, ON where she has been a member of Grenville County 4-H for 10 years. She has completed 25 clubs and is currently the President of the dairy club. Natalie is studying Animal Biology at the University of Guelph where she has held executive positions, such as College Royal Animal Events Director and Judging

Club Secretary. She will be taking on the new positions of Judging Club President and Events Director of the Dairy Science Club. She is the past winner of the Ontario Dairy Youth Trust Fund Scholarship as well as the Norman McCollum Dairy Scholarship. In 4-H, she has won the Grenville County Leadership Award and the Lisa Hess Leadership Award, among many others. At the University of Guelph Natalie participates in events such as Tractor Tug for Tots and Project Christmas Child to give back to her community. Natalie plans to pursue a career in Dairy Genetics or Nutrition in the future.

NOLAN is going into his ninth year in 4-H and has completed over 30 clubs. He has participated in the TD Canadian 4-H Dairy Classic four times and has exhibited animals in the RAWF Red and White and Black and White Shows. Nolan is the President of the Brant 4-H Senior Dairy Club and has served as President, Vice-President, and Press Reporter for several other clubs, including Junior Dairy, Ploughing, Crops, Curling and Outdoors. He is currently enrolled at the University of Guelph for a degree in Food and Agricultural Business. Nolan was the recipient of the 2018 4-H Spirit of Dairy Award and achieved Honour Roll Status throughout his four years of high school. He has exhibited his own animals at many provincial shows including Ontario Spring Discovery, Ontario Summer Show, as well as Autumn Opportunity. Nolan has received several Ontario 4-H, Junior All-Ontario, Open Ontario, and Canadian 4-H nominations for animals that he owns. He plans to have a career in the Agribusiness sector at a financial institution or as a Financial Consultant in a company within the dairy industry.
