

Cameron MacGregor is from Winchester, Ontario where he lives with his wife, Nancy and 2 children, Tristan and Kayla. On his family farm, Cameron raises heifers under the Upper Canada prefix. Additionally, he is the Farm Manager for all the Semex bulls at the Kemptville location. Cameron is no stranger to the show ring as he has judged many 4-H shows, county shows and regional shows throughout Ontario. Additionally, he has judged Holsteins, Jerseys and Ayrshires internationally in 6 different countries, including the United States, Sweden, Columbia, Australia and Brazil. When Cameron is not on the farm, he is involved with his local 4-H association, hockey and is a football coach.
