

John along with his wife, Elizabeth and children, David, Ryan, Kelly and Amy operate Marthaven Holsteins in Woodstock, Ontario. They currently milk 30 cows in a tie stall facility with a focus in marketing genetics. Throughout his judging career, John has judged multiple 4-H shows, county shows and Breeders Cups. Additionally, John has had the opportunity to judge internationally in Portugal and in Oklahoma at the Southern National Holstein Show. A highlight of John's judging career was being the associate judge of the Holstein Show at World Dairy Expo in 2006. John is involved within his community, including being a founding member of the Woodstock men's hockey league and on the Spring Show Committee. John has passion for helping dairy youth of the next generation and never turns down an opportunity to pass along his knowledge.
