

Adam Zehr along with his wife Bethany and family operate Walnutlawn Farms, a two-time Master Breeder shield recipient. Located in Tavistock, Ontario, they milk 60 cows in a tie-stall barn.

Adam has judged multiple 4-H Shows, County Shows and Breeders' Cups throughout Ontario. Recent Judging highlights include the Wellington County Breeders' Cup and Lambton County's 4-H Achievement Day. In 2017, Adam was also proud to judge the 2017 All-Ontario Competition, as well as the Bruce-Grey County Holstein Show.

When Adam is not on the farm, he is active throughout his Church community and loves sports.
