

Ashley Knapton farms with her parents in beautiful Lanark County under the prefix Knapview where they focus on long lasting, high type, productive Holsteins. Ashley also owns animals under her own prefix – A-List Holsteins and Brown Swiss. Ashley has been judging for almost 10 years, having the opportunity to judge a wide array of breeder's cups and 4-H shows throughout Eastern, East Central and even Northern Ontario. Off the farm, Ashley is an agronomist with a particular focus on producing high quality forages.